Challenges.

- Improve the distribution center's efficiency.
- Streamline the entire global supply chain process.
- Increase the customer base and the size of orders.
- Reduce customization costs and time.

Benefits.

- Increased the amount of product going through the distribution center by 30%, without needing to increase personnel.
- Increased the number of customers and the size of orders.
- Enabled real-time visibility of the supply chain and bulk-order updates throughout the entire organization.
- Improved the purchasing, manufacturing, and distribution processes by automating purchase-order-to-customer-order connections.
- Enabled users to manage style and non-style products and operate in a multi-language, multisite, or multicurrency environment.
- Simplified the receiving, picking, packing, and shipping processes by recording all inventory movement with handheld scanners.

"Lawson tailored the solution to our customer service requirements and helped us scale with no appreciable increase in operational costs."
